

Church of the Assumption

a Roman Catholic parish

ERECTED A.D. MCMVII

XXVII Sunday in Ordinary Time 8 October 2023

To all who are tired and need rest;
to all who mourn and need comfort;
to all who are friendless and need friendship;
to all who are discouraged and need hope;
to all who sin and need a Savior; and to whomsoever will,
THIS PARISH OPENS WIDE HER DOORS IN THE NAME OF JESUS THE LORD!

SACRAMENTS

Holy Sacrifice of the Mass

Saturday (anticipated): 5:30 PM
Sunday: 8:00 AM; 10:30 AM; 12:00PM
Monday-Saturday: 8:00 AM
Holy Days of Obligation: see inside

Penance & Reconciliation:

Monday-Thursday; Saturday: 7:30-7:50 AM
Saturday afternoon: 4:00-4:50 PM

A Catholic is obliged to confess serious sins in kind and number to a priest. If one is conscious of having committed serious sin, Confession ought to be made before receiving the Eucharist.

Baptism: Please call to arrange for your child's baptism before or soon after birth. A Godparent must be a Catholic in good standing.

Anointing of the Sick:

Please call for a priest to celebrate this Sacrament of Healing and Forgiveness for someone who is seriously ill or in danger of death. Do not wait until the sick person is unconscious.

Matrimony:

All Catholics ought to seek to have their marriage blessed by the Church so as to live in God's good graces & receive the Eucharist. Marriage cannot validly exist between baptized persons unless it is also a sacrament (Canon 1055.2). Contact a priest about a year prior to the intended date of marriage to ensure proper preparation.

Confirmation: Need to complete your Sacraments of Initiation? Call Mrs. Kachnowski at 908-245-6572. She will help you prepare for confirmation. If they can do so without serious inconvenience, Catholics ought to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation before being admitted to marriage (Canon 1065).

RCIA: Desire baptism? Called to be a Catholic Christian? Contact Deacon David at 908-245-6572 and he will help you discern God's call to holiness.

Charitable Gift Annuities

Making a significant gift to your parish can increase your bottom line! By making a gift for a charitable gift annuity, you receive an income tax deduction and annuity payments for life. Plus, part of each payment is tax-free. Learn more about this wonderful opportunity by contacting Theresa Lynch, Planned Giving Manager, Archdiocese of Newark at (973) 497-4042 or by email at Theresa.lynych@rcan.org.

MEETINGS

Finance Council	Dec 11	7:00	UPH
Pastoral Council	Nov 13	7:00	UPH
Rosary Society	Nov 06	7:00	LPH
Knights of Columbus	Oct 25	8:00	Loreti Hall

Qualified Charitable Distributions

If you are retired and are taking distributions from your traditional IRA, these distributions are considered to be taxable income according to the IRS and you will owe taxes on the total amount you withdraw. However, you can reduce your taxable income by making a charitable distribution directly from your IRA to our parish. For example, if you are taking a $1,000 distribution and you wish to make a $500 donation, and you are in the 20% tax bracket, your tax liability will be reduced by $100. To learn more about this tax saving opportunity contact your financial adviser / institution.

Bread for Mass given
IN THANKSGIVING FOR
THE HELP OF ST. ANTHONY
req. by Theresa & Joe Cicalese (49)

It seems to me that the church pews are relatively empty. Many can remember that 40 or 50 years ago the place was packed at every Mass. They needed two collection baskets! So why have the pews emptied? The answers are multifaceted and often speculative. May I offer some food for thought?

1. Before the changes of the Second Vatican Council, the Mass was in Latin, unknown to most congregants, the music was chant and polyphony which few new how to sing along, there were no communion ministers or readers, communion was received at the rail on the tongue, and the priest faced east (ad orientem) and everyone was emphatically taught that this is the only way. Then in the late 60's it changed suddenly: English was used, sacred music was more akin to popular music, the minor orders (acolyte, sub-deacon, porter, etc.) were opened to the laity, male and female alike, and the priest went to the other side of the altar as if to be more inclusive of the congregation in the celebration of the Eucharist. It should have worked. Protestants would see a less austere liturgy and unite with Catholics, the young would be drawn in by the more hip and friendly style, and little old ladies who prayed the Rosary during Mass would now fully participate in the Mass with responses and song. To some degree this did happen, but the other day at a funeral, the people did not know the responses and at Mass on Sundays, very few sing along. The church is only a quarter full and the baskets are way too big for the collection. My mother reminisces that the old Mass was mysterious and uplifting but the new Mass seemed to be too common; it lacked the mysterious.

2. Now it would be very naïve to say that the changes emptied the pews. It is much more complex. These changes were made around the world, but many of those Churches are flourishing. Western society as a whole has drifted away from family and community. Some say we have a crisis in faith, I say we have a crisis in family. St. John Paul II was fond of saying that the home is the domestic church. It is in this church that the children learn to pray, participate in the sacramental life of the Church, and learn right from wrong. The family has suffered an enormous onslaught over the last 50 or so years. A high rate of divorce and adultery, homosexuality, abortion, same-sex marriage, deferral of marriage, governmental intrusion on child rearing, "spare the rod and spoil the child*" mentality, etc. all have contributed to the destruction or weakening of the family. Perhaps you can think of others. Where the Church is flourishing family and community are still strong.

3. Since we have a generation or two now growing up with little or no faith we have less hope and less love in the world. From faith we have hope and from hope we know love. Faith is believing in what we cannot see. Science and Catholicism have never been opposed to one another regardless of what you may have heard about Galileo; that's another story. The Church, the Catholic Church, desires the Truth and as long as a believer or non-believer seeks the truth, the Church has no disconnect. I was a teacher and one of my colleagues refused to begin class with a prayer because she said religion and science don't mix. I beg your pardon. Fr. Lemaitre formulated the Big Bang Theory, Fr. Mendl worked with genetics, and a number of the craters and seas of the moon are named after priests. The Church does not deny evolution but she does insist that God created it all. Yet there is an attitude amongst many, believers and not, that the Church rejects science. This can entice many young people to forget faith and totally rely on reason, we call this rationalism. Other attacks against faith are relativism, secularism, and above all the loss of the sense of sin.

4. Jesus said: "Those who are healthy do not need a physician, but the sick do. I have not come to call the righteous to repentance but sinners." Yes, Jesus has come to save us from the very sins that condemn us, that make it difficult to love, that paralyze us. Today, there are very few sins left: child abuse, murder, rape, political incorrectness, otherwise most everything else is at least permissible or not the person's fault. We hear terms like, misspoken, he had a difficult childhood, it's an addiction, and many other euphemisms. With these attitudes, why does anyone need to go to Jesus? Now, going to Mass is a time to give thanks to God for the many blessings received, even the trials that force us to grow, but it is also a time to receive forgiveness. We begin Mass with a penitential rite and the words of consecration say, "for the forgiveness of sin". So effectually, if we do not believe we have sinned, if we have made excuses for our missteps, then we don't need forgiveness, we don't need Jesus and we certainly don't need Church. Until we regain a proper sense of sin, the demonic, and right from wrong, the pews will continue to empty while other forms of "religion" fulfill our needs.

Pax Christi, Fr. Paul

*This is a direct affront to biblical teaching: He who spares his rod hates his son, but he who loves him takes care to chastise him (Proverbs 13:24).

Ethics Point

To help ensure that we provide an environment that strengthens our Church, safeguards vital resources entrusted to us, and upholds the highest standards, the Archdiocese has implementing EthicsPoint, an independent reporting system that allows anyone to report concerns regarding financial misconduct or violations of conduct*.

A person reporting concerns can identify himself or remain anonymous.

To make a report: call (844) 675-7687 to speak with an EthicsPoint-trained specialist or go to:

POPE SAINT JOHN XXIII

O loving Jesus, I kneel at your feet, sure as I am that you will know how to bring about what I cannot even imagine. I want to serve you wherever you wish, at any cost, at any sacrifice. There is nothing I can do; I do not even know how to humble myself. But I will say this to you and say it firmly: I want to be humble, I want to love humiliations and being treated with indifference by my fellows. I shut my eyes and hurl myself, with a sort of voluptuous delight into that flood of scorn, suffering and shame which you may be pleased to send me. I feel a great unwillingness to say this to you, it tears my heart, but I give you my promise: I want to suffer, I want to be despised for you. I do not know what I shall do—indeed I do not really believe myself—but I will not give up wanting this with all my heart and soul:

“To suffer and be despised for you.”

John XXIII, Journal of a Soul

New Time for Saturday Evening Anticipated Mass

A few months back I asked the 5:30 PM Mass congregation if they would like to celebrate Mass to 5:00 PM. I invited comments via email. Of the 13 emails I received, two were concerned about the proposed change; the others favored it highly.

As St. Thomas More quoted, “Silence is consent.” Therefore, beginning with the First Sunday of Advent, the anticipated Mass on December 2, 2023 will begin at 5:00 PM.

4. Receiving envelopes shows that you contribute to the welfare of the parish.

WANTED: COMMUNION MINISTERS & READERS

Readers for Mass: please consider this ministry. As a reader you proclaim the word of God during the celebration of Holy Mass.

Communion Ministers: please consider the awesome ministry of assisting Father in the distribution of Holy Communion at Mass and perhaps to the home bound.

Please call Father at 908-245-1107 and let him know you would like to be considered for either of these ministries.

Lazarus Ministry Comfort the Sorrowing

Assist grieving families as they prepare their loved one's funeral.
All you need is a kind disposition and attentive heart.

Call Marge Denci at 908-507-6306 to find out how you too can serve Christ.

2024 Mass Book Opened September 11

You are welcome to book Masses for the Calendar year 2024. In order for all the members of our Parish to have a chance to have Masses offered for their loved ones, each person will be able to book only three (3) Masses until October 7.

Beginning Tuesday, October 10, the Mass Book will be open for additional requests. As permitted by the Code of Canon Law, there will be a "Corporate Mass" offered on the first Saturday of each month at 5:30 pm. There will be multiple intentions for that Mass during which each name will be read. The priest who offers the Mass may receive only one stipend. The other stipends will be used for support of missionary and visiting clergy. Masses may be offered for the living or the deceased.

Knights' Corner

The Knights of Columbus (Council #3240) of the Church of the Assumption would like to invite any interested men, that wish to learn more about the Knights of Columbus to fill out one of the cards located in the front of the Church and place it in the collection basket. The Blessed Mother has consistently told visionaries that the key to peace in the world is to pray the rosary every day. Countless saints and popes down the centuries have attested to the power of both Eucharistic Adoration and the Rosary. This is a powerful and effective spiritual approach to the world's problems.

This Rosary Congress is for reparation, life and peace, healing, renewal, families, our country, evangelization and vocations. Through the heart and the school of Mary, the Rosary Congress throughout the Archdiocese will provide an invitation for many to experience the power of encountering Jesus in Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, some for the very first time.
