15 October 2023

To all who are tired and need rest;
to all who mourn and need comfort;
to all who are friendless and need friendship;
to all who are discouraged and need hope;
to all who sin and need a Savior; and to whomsoever will,
THIS PARISH OPENS WIDE HER DOORS IN THE NAME OF JESUS THE LORD!

SACRAMENTS

Holy Sacrifice of the Mass

Saturday (anticipated): 5:30 PM
Sunday: 8:00 AM; 10:30 AM; 12:00PM
Monday-Saturday: 8:00 AM
Holy Days of Obligation: see inside

Penance & Reconciliation:

Monday-Thursday; Saturday: 7:30-7:50 AM
Saturday afternoon: 4:00-4:50 PM

A Catholic is obliged to confess serious sins in kind and number to a priest. If one is conscious of having committed serious sin, Confession ought to be made before receiving the Eucharist.

Baptism: Please call to arrange for your child's baptism before or soon after birth. A Godparent must be a Catholic in good standing.

Anointing of the Sick:

Please call for a priest to celebrate this Sacrament of Healing and Forgiveness for someone who is seriously ill or in danger of death. Do not wait until the sick person is unconscious.

Matrimony:

All Catholics ought to seek to have their marriage blessed by the Church so as to live in God's good graces & receive the Eucharist. Marriage cannot validly exist between baptized persons unless it is also a sacrament (Canon 1055.2). Contact a priest about a year prior to the intended date of marriage to ensure proper preparation.

Confirmation: Need to complete your Sacraments of Initiation? Call Mrs. Kachnowski at 908-245-6572. She will help you prepare for confirmation. If they can do so without serious inconvenience, Catholics ought to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation before being admitted to marriage (Canon 1065).

RCIA: Desire baptism? Called to be a Catholic Christian? Contact Deacon David at 908-245-6572 and he will help you discern God's call to holiness.

I can say and believe in something that had been considered good or normal has now become know to be evil or abnormal.

Let's take slavery for instance. For millennia, slavery had been the practice in many cultures as normative and even good. In ancient Rome, a man and his family could be sold into slavery to pay off a debt. Or remember David's deal with the Philistines. If he had lost to Goliath, Israel would have become servants of the Philistines – the spoils of war. Often this was preferred to the alternative – death. It wasn't until the 19th century that the Church declared universally that slavery was a sinful act against the dignity of the human person. Previously it was tolerated as a necessary evil.

In ancient Rome, abortion and infanticide was a normal practice. If a child was ill or deformed, or if it was an unwanted girl, the child would be thrown to the dogs. The Christians came forward in their belief in the sacredness of human life, and often rescued these children and eventually transformed western civilization by promoting the dignity of every human being. In the pre-Gospel writing called the Didache, it clearly states that Christians do not have abortions nor commit infanticide.

But to take something that is considered evil and now see it as good and virtuous is a falsehood. It would be the pleasure of the Mafia if their way of life – crime, murder and extortion—were recognized as a legitimate way of life and therefore good. I was told by my grandfather that in Sicily, a mafioso leaving for the day would say he is off to work. Just because the sinner says it is a good work doesn't make it such.

Today we're confronted with the sins against human sexuality and the dignity of the human body. From all of known history of salvation, homosexuality and bodily mutilation (for sex-change) have been recognized as sinful or down right unnatural. Yet in modern society, there is a movement to normalize homosexuality and promote sexual transformation.

According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, a homosexual act is disordered. This simply means that it goes against the proper and natural purposes of sexual acts between persons. It violates God's revelation. When one begins to worship the creature and not the Creator he is left to his disordered attractions, see Romans chapter 1. A person in homosexual bondage is not an evil person. He is simply suffering and must struggle to maintain purity of body and soul. That is the call of every baptized person. A person with heterosexual attraction must do the same, but of course he is free to marry and have intimate relations with his wife, or she with her husband, for the purpose of procreation and unity. In fact, the Church teaches that such intimacy is holy and expected of a husband and wife; it consummates the marriage. But such intimate sex-like acts between two persons of the same sex was, is and cannot ever be blessed, condoned, or accepted by the Church and any Christian who loves God and believes all that the Church teaches and proclaims.

So now there is controversy even in the hierarchy of the Church on the blessing of homosexual relationships. Such a blessing would give the impression that a homosexual relationship is good and normal. It is an attempt to remove it from the list of sins. So, while there is a good intention to be "pastoral" to those who feel unwelcomed by the Church, in the reality it tells a sinner that his sin is not a sin and so he does not have to repent and know the peace of Christ in his heart. Feeling good or justified in one's illicit or evil acts is not justification in the sight of Christ. Recall the woman caught in adultery. Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go in peace and SIN no more." So, while we must condemn no one and welcome everyone, we are called and call others to turn away from sin and be healed by the mercy of the Sacred Heart.

EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

Afternoon of Reflection with Bishop Kevin Sweeney

Reflections by Bishop Sweeney, Eucharistic Adoration
Praise & Worship, Benediction & Confession

Bishop Sweeney is a native of Queens, New York and grew up in St. Luke's Parish in Whitestone. He attended Cathedral Prep from 1984 to 1988 and was an outstanding baseball player for the high school seminary team. While his dream of playing professional baseball never panned out, he was inducted into Prep's Hall of Fame in 2013. After high school graduation, Bishop Sweeney entered Cathedral Seminary House of Formation in Douglaston and studied at St. John's University, receiving a B.A. in philosophy in 1992. He then entered the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception in Huntington and received an M.Div. in theology. During his time at the Seminary in Huntington, Kevin spent a pastoral year at St. Agatha's (Brooklyn).

On June 28, 1997, Bishop Sweeney was ordained a priest for the Diocese of Brooklyn by Bishop Thomas Daily. His first assignment as parochial vicar was to the parish of St. Nicholas of Tolentine (Jamaica) from 1997 to 2003. He was then assigned to Our Lady of Sorrows (Corona) from 2003-2004. In 2004, Bishop Sweeney was named by Bishop Nicholas DiMarzio as the vocation director. During his time as vocation director, which lasted until 2010, he also served as the first director of the (St.) Pope John Paul II House of Discernment.

In January, 2010, Bishop Sweeney was appointed pastor of St. Michael's Parish in Sunset Park, Brooklyn, where he served for ten years.

Bishop Sweeney was installed as the eighth bishop of the Paterson Diocese on July 1, 2020 after Pope Francis appointed him to the position on April 15, 2020.

STEWARDSHIP

Last Sunday's Collection: $5783.00

Qualified Charitable Distributions

If you are retired and are taking distributions from your traditional IRA, these distributions are considered to be taxable income according to the IRS and you will owe taxes on the total amount you withdraw. However, you can reduce your taxable income by making a charitable distribution directly from your IRA to our parish. For example, if you are taking a $1,000 distribution and you wish to make a $500 donation, and you are in the 20% tax bracket, your tax liability will be reduced by $100. To learn more about this tax saving opportunity contact your financial adviser / institution.

A Meal on the Road

Last week I went to supper with some old friends. We met at AJ Millers. Paul the elder ordered a steak. Peter had the deluxe nachos. And I ordered a salad with grilled chicken and shrimp. We all had a beverage. The bill came to $75 plus a $15 tip. Yes, that is $90 for a simple meal out. We had no dessert.

I thought to myself, "Would be giving the parish the equivalent cost of a meal outside the home be a nice standard?" Why not?

As a child my family ate at home most of the time and maybe once or twice a month we ordered in—Chinese or pizza, but today, most everyone goes out at least once a week, spending at least $25 per person. I figured that if I can spend that on myself so easily, then I could most certainly be at least this generous to my parish. After all the house where we celebrate Mass and make confession and spend time in the Real Presence is certainly worth more than any meal in a restaurant.

New Time for Saturday Evening Anticipated Mass

A few months back I asked the 5:30 PM Mass congregation if they would like to celebrate Mass to 5:00 PM. I invited comments via email. Of the 13 emails I received, two were concerned about the proposed change; the others favored it highly.

As St. Thomas More quoted, "Silence is consent." Therefore, beginning with the First Sunday of Advent, the anticipated Mass on December 2, 2023 will begin at 5:00 PM.

Entrust yourself entirely to God. He is a Father and a most loving Father at that, who would rather let heaven and earth collapse than abandon anyone who trusted in him.

Saint Luke, Evangelist
(† First Century)

Saint Luke, a physician at Antioch and a painter, was also an excellent rhetorician in Greek, his native language. He became a disciple of Saint Paul, the Apostle's fellow-worker and his faithful friend during his two imprisonments, and is best known to us as the historian of the New Testament acts of both Christ and the Apostles. Though not an eye-witness of Our Lord's life, the meticulous Evangelist diligently gathered information from those who had followed or listened to Jesus of Nazareth, and wrote, as he tells us, all things in order. His command of Greek is much admired. Saint Clement of Alexandria, Saint Jerome and Saint Thomas Aquinas state that it is he who translated Saint Paul's famous Epistle to the Hebrews, written in the language of the Jerusalem Christians, into the admirable Greek which we presently possess as the only ancient version.

The Acts of the Apostles were written by the Evangelist as a sequel to his Gospel, bringing the history of the Church down to the first imprisonment of Saint Paul in Rome, in the year 64. The humble historian never names himself, but by his occasional use of we instead of he or they, we are able to detect his presence in the scenes of Saint Paul's life which he describes. We thus find that he sailed with Paul and Silas from Troas to Macedonia, where he remained behind, apparently, for seven years at Philippi. Finally, after remaining near Saint Paul during the time he was imprisoned in Palestine, he accompanied him, still a prisoner, when he was transported to Rome. Thus he shared the shipwreck and perils of that memorable voyage, narrated in Chapter 27 of Acts — which book no Christian should fail to read, along with the four Gospels. He then narrates the two years of Saint Paul's first imprisonment, ending in his liberation.

There his narrative ends, but from Saint Paul's Epistles we learn that Saint Luke was his faithful companion to the last. His paintings of Our Lady are still conserved with care in a number of places in Europe. Saint Luke certainly learned from the Mother of Christ Herself, the story of the Annunciation, the Visitation, and the Angelic mission to the shepherds of Bethlehem. After the martyrdom of the Apostle to the Gentiles, Saint Epiphanius says that Saint Luke preached in Italy, Gaul, Dalmatia and Macedonia. Others say he went to Egypt and preached in the Thebaid, the region of the Fathers of the desert. Saint Hippolyte says he was crucified in Greece. His mortal remains were transferred to the Church of the Apostles, built by Constantine the Great at Constantinople, with those of Saint Andrew and Saint Timothy. Some of his relics remain in the Greek monastery of Mount Athos.

OCTOBER

MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY

Today, together we confirm that the Holy Rosary is not a pious practice banished to the past, like prayers of other times thought of with nostalgia. Instead, the Rosary is experiencing a new Springtime. Without a doubt, this is one of the most eloquent signs of love that the young generation nourish for Jesus and his Mother, Mary.

In the current world, so dispersive, this prayer helps to put Christ at the centre, as the Virgin did, who meditated within all that was said about her Son, and also what he did and said. When reciting the Rosary, the important and meaningful moments of salvation history are relived. The various steps of Christ's mission are traced. With Mary the heart is oriented toward the mystery of Jesus. Christ is put at the centre of our life, of our time, of our city, through the contemplation and meditation of his holy mysteries of joy, light, sorrow and glory. May Mary help us to welcome within ourselves the grace emanating from these mysteries, so that through us we can "water" society, beginning with our daily relationships, and purifying them from so many negative forces, thus opening them to the newness of God. The Rosary, when it is prayed in an authentic way, not mechanical and superficial but profoundly, it brings, in fact, peace and reconciliation. It contains within itself the healing power of the Most Holy Name of Jesus, invoked with faith and love at the centre of each "Hail Mary".
