XXII Sunday in Ordinary Time 12 November 2023

To all who are tired and need rest;
to all who mourn and need comfort;
to all who are friendless and need friendship;
to all who are discouraged and need hope;
to all who sin and need a Savior; and to whomsoever will,
THIS PARISH OPENS WIDE HER DOORS IN THE NAME OF JESUS THE LORD!

SACRAMENTS

Holy Sacrifice of the Mass

Saturday (anticipated): 5:30 PM
Sunday: 8:00 AM; 10:30 AM; 12:00PM
Monday-Saturday: 8:00 AM
Holy Days of Obligation: see inside

Penance & Reconciliation:

Monday-Thursday; Saturday: 7:30-7:50 AM
Saturday afternoon: 4:00-4:50 PM

A Catholic is obliged to confess serious sins in kind and number to a priest. If one is conscious of having committed serious sin, Confession ought to be made before receiving the Eucharist.

Baptism: Please call to arrange for your child's baptism before or soon after birth. A Godparent must be a Catholic in good standing.

Anointing of the Sick:

Please call for a priest to celebrate this Sacrament of Healing and Forgiveness for someone who is seriously ill or in danger of death. Do not wait until the sick person is unconscious.

Matrimony:

All Catholics ought to seek to have their marriage blessed by the Church so as to live in God's good graces & receive the Eucharist. Marriage cannot validly exist between baptized persons unless it is also a sacrament (Canon 1055.2). Contact a priest about a year prior to the intended date of marriage to ensure proper preparation.

Confirmation: Need to complete your Sacraments of Initiation? Call Mrs. Kachnowski at 908-245-6572. She will help you prepare for confirmation. If they can do so without serious inconvenience, Catholics ought to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation before being admitted to marriage (Canon 1065).

RCIA: Desire baptism? Called to be a Catholic Christian? Contact Deacon David at 908-245-6572 and he will help you discern God's call to holiness.

It is by the path of love, which is charity, that God draws near to man, and man to God. But where charity is not found, God cannot dwell. If, then, we possess charity, we possess God, for "God is Charity" (1 John 4:8)

Jesus said: "The kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom."

We must be on the alert. Which means the light of faith is to be kept alive by works of charity. How often we are fooled by the evil one into thinking that our sins are the greatest measure of our character, but in reality the amount of charity we exercise gives us the strength to be Christ's instrument on earth. This is proven by the grace Christ gives us through the sacraments in which he wipes away our sins, beginning with Baptism, when all sin and especially original sin are eliminated from our souls. But in life we sin, whether out of human weakness or even out of intentional evil. Regardless, when we approach the Lord in the Sacrament of Reconciliation with humble and contrite hearts in confessing sins, we are freed. But if we fail to do works of charity (sin of omission), our lamps will dim and we will have nothing to welcome the Lord when he comes at the end of our lives and calls us to Himself.

So let's always remember to fill our lamp of faith with the oil of charity ready to greet Him when He comes.

Pax Christi, Fr. Paul

The German Bishop of Speyer, Karl-Heinz Wiesenmann, issued a letter asking pastors in his diocese to bless same-sex couples. Mr. Paul J Kim wrote the following on November 4. I share with you his faithful response.

"No one can change what Scripture & Church teaching already clearly state about God's plan for sex/marriage; which can only be blessed by God when it's between a man & a woman within the context of a committed, sacramental marriage.

"No one... not the pope, not the bishop, not a priest, nor a lay person can ask God to bless a same-sex couple who refuse to observe God's will for that relationship: Chastity & celibacy. Why? Because you can't bless sin. It's the same reason why an unmarried straight couple who are living together (but refuse to get married) or were just civilly married (but refuse sacramental marriage), or someone who is divorced but remarried (without being granted an annulment) can't ask for a blessing on their relationship unless they seek to live in accordance with God's will in each of those circumstances.

"Am I sharing all this because of hate? No, quite the opposite. I love people enough to tell them the truth. St. John the Baptist loved Herod enough to call him out for having an adulterous relationship with his brother's wife. St. Thomas More loved King Henry VIII enough to refuse to support his desire to divorce & remarry on the grounds of wanting a new wife to produce an heir to his throne. St. Charles Lwanga loved God enough to refuse the king's advances to be unchaste with him.

"How is it loving to encourage, bless, or support someone's decision to live a lifestyle that will jeopardize their eternal salvation? This bishop from Germany is teaching heresy & endangering the souls of his priests & his flock that he has been called to shepherd. His own soul is in grave danger & we need to pray for his conversion. I don't enjoy posting things like this because I love Christ's Church & it pains me to see such scandal being produced by [her] leaders who should know better.

"Let's pray for Pope Francis, that he would faithfully fulfill his role in leading the Church in these times, respond swiftly to these bishops who are teaching error, and teach with clarity on these matters that are so critical. May the gates of hell never prevail. Amen.

"Be faithful to God. Be the Saint you're called to be & you will help to renew the Church."

Bring a friend to Mass Next Week.

Since the outbreak of Covid-19 and the temporary closing of the churches, many have chosen to stay at home on Sundays, rather than join the community in prayer at Holy Mass. Fear, extreme caution, health issues—no one knows the reason. However, Christ said, "Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink."

So many of our neighbors, friends, and family have opted to stay home. Our Mass attendance has dropped about 40%. So everyone, on the weekend of Nov 18 & 19, bring someone (or 2) you know to Mass. With love, encourage them to come, for without Christ's Body and Blood we do not have life within us.

ONE WEEK REMAINING!!

LET'S KEEP UP OUR MOMENTUM!!!

Our Increased Offertory Program has seen a tremendous level of support. With over 72 responses and an average offertory increase of 32% we invite every household to consider participating in this important endeavor.

Thank you to all those who have responded thus far. Our parish community continues to be supportive by making their intention to this effort. In doing so we are able to better serve the needs of our community through our ministries, faith formation opportunities and social concerns programs.

YOU CAN STILL RESPOND!

We invite you and every registered household to consider taking a step, or two, in your contribution to the parish by increasing your Sunday offering by 25%-100%.

A Second and Final Follow Up Mailing was sent which you received or will receive shortly.

Please respond by completing the reply card and mailing it back to the parish via USPS, placing it in the Sunday collection basket or bringing it to the parish office.

Thank you again for your consideration to service the mission of our church.

Qualified Charitable Distributions

If you are retired and are taking distributions from your traditional IRA, these distributions are considered to be taxable income according to the IRS and you will owe taxes on the total amount you withdraw. However, you can reduce your taxable income by making a charitable distribution directly from your IRA to our parish. For example, if you are taking a $1,000 distribution and you wish to make a $500 donation, and you are in the 20% tax bracket, your tax liability will be reduced by $100. To learn more about this tax saving opportunity contact your financial adviser / institution.

New Time for Saturday Evening Anticipated Mass

A few months back I asked the 5:30 PM Mass congregation if they would like to celebrate Mass to 5:00 PM. I invited comments via email. Of the 13 emails I received, two were concerned about the proposed change; the others favored it highly.

As St. Thomas More quoted, "Silence is consent." Therefore, beginning with the First Sunday of Advent, the anticipated Mass on December 2, 2023 will begin at 5:00 PM.

Mary's Grotto

We are open from 8:30 - 1:15 on Sundays.

Please stop by and say hello and browse our gift selections.

Charitable Gift Annuities

Making a significant gift to your parish can increase your bottom line! By making a gift for a charitable gift annuity, you receive an income tax deduction and annuity payments for life. Plus, part of each payment is tax-free. Learn more about this wonderful opportunity by contacting Theresa Lynch, Planned Giving Manager, Archdiocese of Newark at (973) 497-4042 or by email at Theresa.lynych@rcan.org.
