XXVI Sunday in Ordinary Time

1 October 2023

To all who are tired and need rest;
to all who mourn and need comfort;
to all who are friendless and need friendship;
to all who are discouraged and need hope;
to all who sin and need a Savior; and to whomsoever will,
THIS PARISH OPENS WIDE HER DOORS IN THE NAME OF JESUS THE LORD!

SACRAMENTS

Holy Sacrifice of the Mass

Saturday (anticipated): 5:30 PM

Sunday: 8:00 AM; 10:30 AM;
12:00PM

Monday-Saturday: 8:00 AM

Holy Days of Obligation: see inside

Penance & Reconciliation:

Monday-Thursday; Saturday: 7:30-7:50 AM

Saturday afternoon: 4:00-4:50 PM

A Catholic is obliged to confess serious sins in kind and number to a priest. If one is conscious of having committed serious sin, Confession ought to be made before receiving the Eucharist.

Baptism: Please call to arrange for your child's baptism before or soon after birth. A God-parent must be a Catholic in good standing.

Anointing of the Sick:

Please call for a priest to celebrate this Sacrament of Healing and Forgiveness for someone who is seriously ill or in danger of death. Do not wait until the sick person is unconscious.

Matrimony:

All Catholics ought to seek to have their marriage blessed by the Church so as to live in God's good graces & receive the Eucharist. Marriage cannot validly exist between baptized persons unless it is also a sacrament (Canon 1055.2). Contact a priest about a year prior to the intended date of marriage to ensure proper preparation.

Confirmation: Need to complete your Sacraments of Initiation? Call Mrs. Kachnowski at 908-245-6572. She will help you prepare for confirmation. If they can do so without serious inconvenience, Catholics ought to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation before being admitted to marriage (Canon 1065).

RCIA: Desire baptism? Called to be a Catholic Christian? Contact Deacon David at 908-245-6572 and he will help you discern God's call to holiness.

“Which of the two did his father's will?”

When I was sixteen years old I talked to my father like an adult. He was in the habit of barking out orders: Do this and do that! I dreaded Sunday's because that seemed to be yard work chores and Saturday mornings weren't much better – that's when mom had us clean house. At sixteen my father was yelling at me to get something done. I looked straight at him and said, “All you have to do is ask. You don't have to yell all the time.” He looked at me in a very pensive way. And from that time on I did as he asked and he never barked an order at me again.

In the Gospel Jesus uses a parable to explain that God calls us to do something. And as his faithful sons and daughters we must respond to his “orders”. We need to be obedient and we must do what he asks, not what we want. The first son in today's Gospel said, “No,” but realizing his disobedience and his filial duty, he did what his father asked. The second however, said, “Yes,” but then chose to do what he wanted in complete disobedience and disregard for his duty to be a good son. The first repented but the second turned away.

In our own relationship with God, we need too realize two things. One, we are sinners and often we disobey God or choose our own will, but we can all turn away from sin and become God's true sons and daughters. Two, we are not to give lip service to God. We must do as we believe realizing the grace that God has given to us is for the enrichment of our soul and the building up of the Church. So let us be good sons and daughters and mean yes when we say yes to God and no when we mean no to all that leads us away from God.

Pax Christi, Fr. Paul

Remember that when you leave this earth, you can take with you nothing that you have received - only what you have given: a full heart, enriched by honest service, love, sacrifice and courage.

St. Francis of Assisi

Ethics Point

To help ensure that we provide an environment that strengthens our Church, safeguards vital resources entrusted to us, and upholds the highest standards, the Archdiocese has implementing EthicsPoint, an independent reporting system that allows anyone to report concerns regarding financial misconduct or violations of conduct*.

A person reporting concerns can identify himself or remain anonymous.

To make a report: call (844) 675-7687 to speak with an EthicsPoint-trained specialist or go to:

EthicsPoint - Archdiocese of Newark

<https://secure.ethicspoint.com/domain/media/en/gui/58668/index.html>

* It is important to note that any person who wishes to report an incident of sexual abuse should contact the Office of the Protection of the Faithful immediately by calling 973-497-4254.

ADDICTION TREATMENT REFERRAL PROGRAM for persons suffering from acute addiction

Within 48 hours of receipt of referral, NJRC will provide linkage to and commencement of addiction treatment services to referred persons. These services will include but are not limited to linkages for intake, the creation of a personalized long-term treatment plan, detoxification, ambulatory withdrawal management, induction on Suboxone or buprenorphine or the initiation of Vivitrol, residential treatment, intensive outpatient treatment, and/or induction of Medication Assisted Treatment, as needed and appropriate. Where appropriate, court-involved persons and justice-involved veterans will also be enrolled and referred to NJRC's Orientation and additional wrap-around services, including job training and employment, mental health and medical care, transportation, and license restoration services.

To connect yourself or a loved one to addiction treatment or for any questions, please contact NJRC Chief Operating Officer Robert Carter at 732-948-5880 or rcarter@njrcentry.org.

Qualified Charitable Distributions

If you are retired and are taking distributions from your traditional IRA, these distributions are considered to be taxable income according to the IRS and you will owe taxes on the total amount you withdraw. However, you can reduce your taxable income by making a charitable distribution directly from your IRA to our parish. For example, if you are taking a $1,000 distribution and you wish to make a $500 donation, and you are in the 20% tax bracket, your tax liability will be reduced by $100. To learn more about this tax saving opportunity contact your financial adviser / institution.

Save your Children from “adult” websites. Protect your chastity, now!

Go to Freefiltering.org and learn how to block those unwanted sites from your eyes. Protect your virtue, guard your children's innocence.

It really works by blocking sites in your Wi-Fi server. Act now before your children see one more pornographic site or one more “social media” site promoting the LGBTQ+ propaganda.

New Time for Saturday Evening Anticipated Mass

A few months back I asked the 5:30 PM Mass congregation if they would like to celebrate Mass to 5:00 PM. I invited comments via email. Of the 13 emails I received, two were concerned about the proposed change; the others favored it highly.

As St. Thomas More quoted, "Silence is consent." Therefore, beginning with the First Sunday of Advent, the anticipated Mass on December 2, 2023 will begin at 5:00 PM.

The Blessed Mother has consistently told visionaries that the key to peace in the world is to pray the rosary every day. Countless saints and popes down the centuries have attested to the power of both Eucharistic Adoration and the Rosary. This is a powerful and effective spiritual approach to the world's problems.

This Rosary Congress is for reparation, life and peace, healing, renewal, families, our country, evangelization and vocations. Through the heart and the school of Mary, the Rosary Congress throughout the Archdiocese will provide an invitation for many to experience the power of encountering Jesus in Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, some for the very first time.
